

Executive & Retained Searches

Whilst all hires are important, we understand that some roles can be more business critical than others. For the more niche or senior appointment, we offer an executive or retained search service. Both services involve working with Cranleigh Scientific on a sole agency basis and partnering with one of our experienced consultants to manage your recruitment campaign.

Exclusively Cranleigh Executive Recruitment

Our Exclusively Cranleigh service is reserved for your most senior and discreet appointments. This service offers a head hunting style approach, allowing us to act as a third party to identify and contact the most suitable candidates in the market.

Tailored Recruitment Campaign

We work closely with you to create a personalised campaign to target the profiles you need.

Smart Recruiting

Your search will be our consultants priority. You'll be kept updated throughout and receive a weekly search report detailing our progress.

Confidence

We'll approach the candidates you can't, ascertaining their interest and suitability ready for your review.

The Fees

Three fixed payments, staggered throughout the process. As you are working with us on a sole agency basis, the total fee is a significant reduction on our standard T&C's.
